Bloomfield Police Department responded to Bloomfield High School which went into lockdown due to a report of a student in the school having a gun. Officers were able to locate the suspect student in the school and the student did not possess any type of weapon. The preliminary investigation indicates that the suspect student boasted as to possessing a gun and hoaxed fellow students. As a precautionary measure, a police K9 searched the premises and did not locate a firearm, and the school was deemed clear at approximately 2:15 p.m. School Officials released the students once the lockdown was lifted. BPD will continue to investigate the matter and juvenile charges may be brought upon establishment of elements of crime.
